REQUEST FOR QUOTATION – SAE 15/2018

MEDIA MONITORING SERVICES FOR A PERIOD OF 12 MONTHS

1. Background

The Durban ICC is one of the most advanced conference facilities in the world, having been voted "Africa's Leading Meetings and Conference Centre" at the World Travel Awards 16 times.

2. Purpose

In order to effectively manage the public perception of the Durban ICC it is important to monitor the level and nature of media exposure which the company generates on an on-going basis. The company thus requires the services of a media monitoring agency to aggregate media articles and provide a platform for review and analysis of these articles, for a period of 12 months.

3. Conditions of contract

3.1 The appointed service provider would need to monitor all mentions of the Durban ICC and its associated key words in the following media:

- Print media
- Broadcast media (Radio and Television)
- Online media

The Durban ICC anticipates a total of 1000 media articles per month across the abovementioned media types. The service provider should include the monitoring cost for 1000 clippings per month and specify the additional costs should the number of articles exceed this number in any given month.

3.2 Online platform

The appointed service provider is to provide an online platform where the articles can be viewed and downloaded as required. This platform is to provide the ability to search existing articles for specific content.

3.3 Notification of articles

The Durban ICC requires email notification of each new article as it is captured by the media monitoring system. The email notifications should provide a summary of the details of the media clipping, but do not need to include the content of the article.

3.4 Reporting

The media monitoring service must provide the accurate allocation of the Advertising Value Equivalency (AVE) value of each article.

The Durban ICC requires the functionality to generate statistical reports from the media monitoring system on a monthly and quarterly basis, including the total value of AVE for the articles over a specified date range.

3.5 Article categorization

The Durban ICC requires functionality which allows the manual allocation of individual articles into specified categories. The functionality should also provide for the generating of AVE reports for each category over a specified date range.

3.6 Communication with Media Database

The Durban ICC requires an extensive database of the media in South Africa, with full details of print, broadcast and online media, (journalists and editors) including information such as profiles, and demographics. The functionality should also provide the ability for the Durban ICC to email Press Releases and attachments like photographs to this database directly.

3.7 Trial Period

The Durban ICC reserves the right to assess the services of the recommended service provider over a period of time, not exceeding one calendar month. The objective is to ascertain whether the quality of the services rendered meets the requirements of the organisation.

Once the above has been successfully determined, the official appointment of the service provider for the balance of the 11- month contact will be awarded. Should the quality of the services received be deemed not to meet the requirements of the organisation, the Durban ICC reserves the right to cancel the appointment at the end or the earlier of the one month trial period.

4. Mandatory Requirements
