SAFETY, HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL (SHE) POLICY

The Durban ICC specializes in the provision of catered conference and exhibition facilities. We are committed to establish, maintain and continually improve on an ISO Integrated Management System (IMS), which complies with the ISO 14001, OHSAS 18001 and any relevant legislation and other requirements. In line with our mission, core values and beliefs, all levels and functions of the organisation, especially top management, are committed to the ongoing involvement in the Safety Health and Environmental systems of the organisation and in its continual improvement.

- We strive to prevent all Safety, Health and Environmental incidents.
- Management at all levels in the organisation are role models in the management of safety and environmental matters within the organisation.
- Hazardous or dangerous behaviours are not acceptable and are addressed accordingly.
- Sound safety, health and environmental practices is good business practice.

Our ISO Integrated Management System (IMS) guides us in the way we do our business to protect all stakeholders, protect the environment and the community at large. Top management is committed to establish, implement and maintain procedures to support the SHE Policy and their objectives and targets.

To achieve our goals we are committed to:

- Complying with applicable legal and other requirements.
- Continually improving our performance and management of the ISO IMS through management reviews, audits and open relations with all stakeholders and interested and affected parties.
- Identifying potential hazards. Mitigating these risks within our organization to prevent injury, ill health, damage to assets and actively involved in reducing the organisation's impact on the environment.
- Being actively involved in protecting the environment; preventing pollution; reducing our waste; promoting recycling and efficiently using our energy sources.
- We will educate, train, motivate, inform, promote awareness and support our staff, suppliers/contractors and clients in the application of this policy and associated procedures. We intend to make them aware of their individual SHE obligations within the organisation and how these SHE obligations impacts the organisation.

Our performance in these endeavours will be monitored and measured against our targets and objectives set and supported by top management. This policy is freely available to the public on the company website and to all staff on the company intranet. It's also displayed in designated areas around the centre. This policy is reviewed periodically to ensure it remains relevant and appropriate to our organization.
